CATHERINE HEGYESSY MOULTON

Catherine Hegyessy Moulton was born September 17, 1890, in Alliance, Ohio, to James and Florence Maud Tritt Hegyessy. When a small child she moved to Sacramento, California, and attended school there. After graduating from business college she secured a position as teacher at the same college until she was offered a position as secretary for a large firm in Sacramento. Here she took dictation, did typing, and court reporting.

On May 21, 1913, she came to Utah and married A. C. Moulton, but pursued her business career along with her duties as a wife and mother. She did court reporting, typing and shorthand for attorneys that were in Heber and for those who came from Salt Lake City for court cases. She rented typewriters from Salt Lake and taught business training to many young people of the valley.

She was clerk of the original draft board in 1941 and continued to serve in that position when it later became known as the Selective Service System. She was very capable and efficient, rendering untold service to this county until the time of her death, April 16, 1956.

Catherine was a convert to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (1910) and was always active. She held prominent positions on Primary and Relief Society stake boards and taught in other auxiliaries of the Church. To her and her husband were born five children: Mrs. Ervin J. (Florence Fern) Anderson, John Barton Moulton, Mrs. Clyde V. (Delores) Miller, Mrs. Fay C. (Adele) Provost and Mrs. Niff (Addie) Murdock.
